FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] FORT SHAFTER, August 1.—The principal event in the social life of this garrison for the past week was the afternoon at auction given by Mrs.
M. J. Lenihan in honor of Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson of the 2d Infantry.
For this event over 50 guests were invited. The spacious quarters of Mrs.
Lenihan were charmingly decorated in green and white throughout and made a most attractive setting for the six tables of players that participated.
Growing ferns in decorated pots of Japanese pattern were the prizes for high scores, and these were won in order by Mrs. Wilmet E. Ellis, Mrs.
Walter H. Johnson and Mrs. Fred A.
Cook, with Mrs. John S. Johnston as the recipient of the consolation prize.
In addition to the charm of the afternoon's entertainment, Mrs. Lenihan's friends derived great pleasure in the knowledge that she had again resumed her place in the active social life of the service, after a long period of absence therefrom.

The invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs.
Clarence R. Edwards, Mrs. B. O. Mahaffey, Mrs. W. R. Scott, Mrs. E. J.
O'Hara, Mrs. Cronan, Mrs. George A.
Taylor, Mrs. J. G. Pillow, Mrs. Geo.
H. Jamerson, Mrs. F. A. Cook, Mrs.
O. B. Rosenbaum, Mrs. H. N. Preston, Mrs. P. B. Malone, Mrs. J. D. Reard-dan, Mrs. Geo. H. Bailey, Mrs. C. S.
Lincoln, Mrs. D. B. Case, Mrs. H. F.
Nichols, Mrs. F. S. Besson, Mrs. F. H.
Barker, Mrs. J. E. Bell, Mrs. F. H.
French, Mrs. J. C. Kay, Mrs. F. W.
Phisterer, Mrs. R. M. Cutts, Madame Randolph, Mrs. F. F. Black, Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mrs.
L. O. Mathews, Mrs. G. S. Gibbs, Mrs.
J. O. Johnston, Mrs. B. H. Watkins, Mrs. C. B. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Ellis, Mrs. E. K. Massee, Mrs. W. T. Han-num, Mrs. C. C. Gee, and the Misses Alexander, Wallace and Rosenbaum.

Following the brisk rubbers Mrs.
Lincoln and Mrs. Jamerson served the refreshments and in this they were assisted by Mrs. Gibbs, Miss Rosenbaum, Miss Lenihan and Miss Catherine Lenihan.

Mrs. William R. Davis, wife of Captain Davis, has been a surgical patient of Captain Owen during the past week and is still confined to her room in the women's ward of the department hospital. Mrs. Davis is reported as progressing favorably although the operation performed upon her was one of a serious nature. Another patient whose case has excited the deep interest and sympathy of her many friends is Miss Margaret Porter, the niece and house guest for the summer of Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards.
Miss Porter has also been under the care of Captain Owen for an operation for appendicitis and though her case only occurred on Thursday of this week her progress towards recovery has been deemed most satisfactory. General and Mrs. Edwards and Miss Edwards have been most constant in their visits and care for the charming young girl of their household.

The first of the "ladies' nights" at the 2d Infantry mess occurred on the Monday of last week and was pronounced a great success. It is the intention of the board of governors of the mess to continue these evenings weekly. Informal dancing and cards were the diversions for the evening, and it is hoped that orchestral concerts as well as other musical programs may find a place in the entertainments to be provided by the managers in future nights.

Lieut. and Mrs. L. O. Mathews were hosts for a delightful and large super party on Sunday night of this week. Their guests included Captain and Mrs. Hannum, Misses Rosenbaum, Lenihan, Malone and Catherine Lenihan, practically all of the bachelor officers of the post and included Captain Mudd of Armstrong, Dr.
Dieber, Mr. Henshaw and Mr. Lowrey of the National Guard.

Lieut. L. McD. Silvester leaves today on the mine planter as the guest of Lieutenant Cook, the commanding officer of that vessel, and after his arrival at San Francisco will journey to his home for the remainder of the extended leave that has been granted him.

The Wednesday Bridge Club of the post met this week at the quarters of Captain and Mrs. J. C. Kay. Guests of the club for the evening were Captain and Mrs. B. H. Watkins, playing for the host and hostess.

Captain and Mrs. George H. Jam-erson and their young son were week end guests of Captain and Mrs. Winans of the 4th Cavalry at Schofield Barracks.

Lieut. William C. Rose has been absent from the garrison on a short leave this past week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter on their yacht Niagara on the trip to Hilo and the later journey to the volcano.

Mrs. E. W. Atkinson has invited guests to fill two tables at bridge for today in honor of Mrs. William P.
Wooten, who is to leave by the next transport for Major Wooten's new station at Washington Barracks, D. C.

This present week being the one in which the regular fortnightly hop of the Shafter garrison will take place,

The Japanese ambassador and Visa number of entertainments at dinner and supper after the hop have been planned. Invitations to the newly arrived officers of the navy off the cruisers and torpedo boats will be sent down to the Navy Yard and their presence will add greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

Captain and Mrs. Paul B. Malone and the Misses Lenihan and Miss Malone were among those of the garrison that were in attendance at the wedding of Miss Reichmann and Lieutenant Watrous of Schofield that took place on Tuesday at noon in the Cathedral in Honolulu.

On Sunday last the post was engaged in welcoming for temporary visits a number of the officers of the headquarters, and the two battalions of the regiment who had been absent at Red Hill in joint camp with the Hawaiian National Guard.

Mrs. Pelham D. Glassford of Scho-

SAYS GRAND JURY SHOULD NOT HAVE PROBED SALOON MATTERS

Circuit Judge Robinson Administers Reproof to Territorial Inquisitors

Circuit Judge Robinson takes the position that the territorial grand jury acted outside of its jurisdiction in taking up the matter of saloon ownership in Honolulu.

He made this plain when the grand jury reported, late yesterday afternoon and Foreman Gilman apologetically told the court that the grand jury report on the Bartlett-Waterson-Kynch-Sullivan deals had been given to the public some days ago.

It is now expected that any further probing of the grand jury into saloon matters will be dropped.

"Even had the report you allude to been filed in this court I would order it expunged from the records," said Judge Robinson. "The subject treated concerns a matter which is not within the jurisdiction of the grand jury to consider. The grand jury can not concern itself with the establishing of private rights nor the redressing of private wrongs and I trust that no further investigations of this character will be indulged in by the grand jury."

"Any subsequent investigation similar to that referred to in the report you allude to will be considered in contempt of this court and summarily punished as such. In taking up such private subjects the members of the grand jury not only waste their time but squander public money."

Two indictments were returned and one no bill. In the case of the Territory against Manuel Smith, the police officer charged with shooting William Jackson, a private of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, at Iwilei some weeks ago, the grand jury reported no bill.

The true bills returned were as follows: Territory against Juan River-ra, charged with assault and battery with a deadly weapon, and Territory against Frank Jose, charged with a statutory offense against a girl under the age of fifteen years.
